

Julie K. Charlson, Ph.D.

Title: Assistant Professor
Advising Area: Interior Design
Office: BH 302
Phone: 1.415.338.3421
E-mail: jcharlso@sfsu.edu

Areas of Specialization:

Sustainable Commercial Interiors
Design for Small Spaces
Technology Instruction

Courses Taught:

ID 641 Commercial Solutions
ID 640 Residential Solutions
ID 440 Construction systems/code
ID 345 Computer Aided Design

Current Research Interests:

Teaching Methods Research including online instruction, internationalization of construction course for Interior Design, 3-D CAD visualization for Interior Design process, and student stories for writing skills promoting design K-12

Professional Activities:

Class-Community Partnerships with San Francisco International Airport for retail design and kitchen/bath remodel proposals for the public

Presentation to Bridge Housing contributing to low-income design

IDEC National Conferences:
2008 & 2009 Paper Presentations

Degrees & Education:

Colorado State University:
Doctorate degree
Master of Science

University of Northern Colorado:
Consumer & Family Studies
Bachelor of Arts

Hobbies, Interests, Personal Info

Photography while hiking or biking
Art Museums and vacation Travel

Daughter an Oncology Pharmacist
Son a college Art major & drummer