CFS 657
2015 NEW YORK FASHION STUDY TOUR

Thursday June 11 (pre-trip seminar); Saturday-Friday June 13-19 (travel); and Friday June 26 (post-trip seminar)

Apparel and textile showrooms, manufacturers/designers, museums, major retailers, boutiques, history, culture, shopping, the street scene (SoHo, Nolita, Greenwich Village, mid-town, Meatpacking District, Lower East Side), Broadway theatre

- You must register for CFS 657, 3 units, and pay tuition for these units. Mandatory sessions include a pre-trip orientation and post-trip seminar at SFSU, and the 6-day seminars and field trips in New York City. All students will complete a written assignment (the course syllabi will be on iLearn). Also register with the CFS/D Department by using the form below.

- The travel fee is $1250 (airfare and SFSU tuition are not included). Travel fee covers airport shuttle to hotel, six-nights hotel accommodations based on quad room, breakfast included, Broadway theatre ticket, entry to all appointments, NYC subway pass, two meals (you are responsible for other meals), and miscellaneous items. To give students flexibility in flight arrangements, you will be responsible for airfare and tickets to JFK airport arriving Sat June 13 before 6:30pm to take the shuttle to the hotel with the group. Details forthcoming.

- Prerequisite: 6 units of Apparel Design & Merchandising coursework or consent of instructor.

- Class limited to 20 students. The first to pay the deposit will be first on the list.

- Course may be taken for a letter grade or CR/NC; letter grade required for ADM elective.

- No cancellations can be made after May 1. It is not possible to give refunds since hotel and theatre accommodations will already have been made and paid for by this date.
